A Couple Reminders:

Please be sure to pick up, secure, or remove ALL Furniture, Flags, Ornaments, or other unsecured items from your site. We are entering the Severe Storm & Hurricane Season.

These storms will pick up any debris or other potentially dangerous projectiles and cause damage to your own as well as neighboring properties. You are responsible for ANY damages caused by your neglect to properly prepare your site for departure.

Power Washing: Don't forget to Have your RV or Home Power Washed BEFORE you leave. You must wash your unit upon your arrival and before your departure, or as often is necessary, each year. -Another Thought from Lori-

Do I have a future? I do not know the answer to that, and neither do you. We are not guaranteed tomorrow, next week, next month, next year. Life can change in a split second. Loved one's die, family members relocate, marriages end, homes are destroyed by disasters, automobiles are wrecked, businesses close, inflation rises, War rages, and sometimes, we fall.

Living in this community is the best sanctuary I could be in. I've lost my loved ones, and I stumble and fall, but living here I am never alone. There is always someone here to lift me up, to listen and hear me, to console and love me unconditionally. So, for whatever time my "future" is for, I am truly blessed to be living life here.

I will always try to be there for you as well. This is my family this is my future. Thank you, I love you too.
